THE HANCOCK JEFFERSO

E. G. DEWOLFE & CO., Proprietors.

Let us have Faith that Right makes Might, and in that Faith let us to the end dare to do our Duty as we understand it.—ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

POETICAL.

NOTHING BUT LEAVES.

Not hing but leaves The spirit grieves
Over a wasted life;
Ein committed while conscience slept,
Pro mises made and never kept:
Hatred, battles and atrife,
Nothing but leaves,

Nothing but leaves; no gathering sheaves
Of life's fair ripeued grain;
Words, idle words, for earnest deeds;
We sow our seeds—le! tares and weeds,
We reap for tell and pain—
Nothing but leaves.

Nothing but leaves; memory weaves
No veil to screen the past;
As we retrace our wear; way,
Counting each lost and misspent day,
We sadly find at last,
Nothing but leaves.

And shall we meet our Father so,
Bearing our withered leaves?
The Savier looks for perfect fruit—
We stand before him humbled, mute,
Writing the words he breathes.
Nothing but leaves.
